

Invisible Man

Jesse Powell

This may come some surprise
(But standing well within your sight
There's a love that never fades away
If I were to look into your eyes)
Would my reflection materialize
As the love you need or what used to be
(Or would I even see me)

Here I stand, the invisible man
You don't even see
What you do me oh
Don't you see me standing here
(Or have I disappeared
I might as well not even be here... at all)

Is funny how you see me
Baby when you need me
(Right out of thin air)
Somehow I re-appear
How am I suppose to feel
Wondering if your love is real
(If I'm here in vain)
I don't wanna stay but I can't stay away

Here I stand, the invisible man
You don't even see
What you do me oh
Don't you see me standing here
(Or have I disappeared
I might as well not even be here... at all)

(Seasons might change that colours)
But feelings remain
When it's really love
You might not see me
But I'll always be
Waiting right here for you to love

Here I stand, the invisible man
You don't even see
What you do me oh
Don't you see me standing here
(Or have I disappeared
I might as well not even be here... at all)
