You Don't Know

Jesse Powell

You don't know, baby
Just what I'm going through...
You don't know, baby
I have no days, I have no nights
Without you, girl, I have no life...

Girl, there's just no getting over you
The more I try
The more I cry
Girl, no matter what I say I'll do
It still comes back
To wanting to get with you, baby
As I walk room to room, my love
I see traces of you, pictures of you
And I smell your perfume, oh...

You don't know, baby, mmh...
Just what I'm going through over you
You don't know, baby, mmh...
I have no days, I have no nights
Without you, girl, I have no life...

Girl, I sometimes walk out in the rain
To hide the tears
And drown the pain
I sit alone inside a restaurant
I get tea for two, 'cause I know that's what you'd want, baby
But you're not even here, my love
And I just don't know why, I'm losing mymind
I can't let you go, baby...

You don't know, baby, mmh...
Just what I'm going through over you
You don't know, baby, mmh...
I have no days, I have no nights
Without you, girl, I have no life...

You see there's no getting over you
I try, but it's hard to lose
The feeling, baby
I keep holdin' deep inside of me, baby
And when I cry, I cry tears of pain
My life will never be the same
Trust me, baby, you just don't know, babe...

You don't know, baby, mmh...
Just what I'm going through over you
You don't know, baby, mmh...
I have no days, I have no nights
Without you, girl, I have no life...

I wanna go outside in the rain
I wanna go outside in the rain
I wanna go outside in the rain
I have no days, I have no nights
Without you, girl, I have no life

You don't know, baby, mmh...
Just what I'm going through over you
You don't know, baby, mmh...
I have no days, I have no nights
Without you, girl, I have no life...

You don't know, baby, mmh...
Just what I'm going through over you
You don't know, baby, mmh...
I have no days, I have no nights
Without you, girl, I have no life...
