

You're The One I Love

Jesse Powell

It's like I've never been here before
Look at you now, I don't want to wake you
To tell you I'm feeling something more
More than before-I'd be lost without you
In my eyes, there's just you and no other
In my heart, there's no doubt that you're mine
Suddenly, I wonder if I told you what I feel inside

If it doesn't show, baby you don't know I need you, need you
I need you in my life, to you I wouldn't lie-
I'll be true, be true
'Cause if you never told, how would you ever know that baby
You're the one I love?

Girl, if you could read my mind
Then you would see, it's just you and me
And a love that has no sense of time
Pictures of you, now and forever
In my eyes, there's just you and no other
In my heart, there's no doubt that you're mine
Suddenly, I wonder if I told you what I feel inside

If it doesn't show, baby you don't know I need you, need you
I need you in my life, to you I wouldn't lie-
I'll be true, be true
'Cause if you never told, how would you ever know that baby
You're the one I love?

Let me relate to you, baby
There's no need to have any doubt
I love you and I'm gonna say the words out loud...

If it doesn't show, baby you don't know I need you, need you
I need you in my life, to you I wouldn't lie-
I'll be true, be true
'Cause if you never told, how would you ever know that baby
You're the one I love?
