

The Riverside

Jessica Andrews

We spent all night down by the riverside
Laughing at nothing, and talking too much
And the moon looked so bright in your eyes
Before I knew it, I was falling in love
It was too cold too swim,
So we just layed there
On the bank, 'till the break of day
Though we never went in the water
We were swept away

And the river rolls
And the night got cold
But you held me close
And you warmed my soul

We spent all night down by the riverside
Wondering how, it happened so fast
And it sure did take us by surprise
When that morning sun came up at last
It was too cold too swim,
So we just layed there
On the bank, 'till the brake of day
Though we never went in the water
We were swept away

And the river rolls
And the night got cold
But you held me close
And you warmed my soul

And the river rolls
And the night got cold
But you held me close
And you warmed my soul

We spent all night down by the riverside
By the riverside

It was too cold too swim,
So we just layed there
On the bank, 'till the brake of day
No, we never went in the water
We were swept away
