

There's More to Me Than You

Jessica Andrews

I spent years and all this time thinking I was better off cuz you were mine
You always said it was your way or the highway
So I'm shiftin my life into drive
I'm getting out kissing the past good-bye
Like Toby said, "How do you like me now?"
This conversation has run dry
And I keep telling myself

Oooooooo, oooooooo, oooooooo
There's more to me than you
ooooooo, oooooooo
Don't underestimate what I can do
Well I'm alright, it's okay
I know I'll make it through
Cuz there's more to me than you

I'm not saying I'm battered and bruised but I might as well be with the words you used
I believe in myself, that makes me stronger
Things changed and so have I
I'm gonna make hay while the sun still shines
You can clip my wings, but I'm still gonna fly
I'm on my own and on my way
And I keep telling myself

Oooooooo, oooooooo, oooooooo
There's more to me than you
ooooooo, oooooooo
Don't underestimate what I can do
Well I'm alright, it's okay
I know I'll make it through
Cuz there's more to me than you

There was always something that meant more to you than me
And I'm just sorry it's taking this for you to see

Oooooooo, oooooooo, oooooooo
There's more to me than you
ooooooo, oooooooo
Don't underestimate what I can do
Well I'm alright, it's okay
I know I'll make it through
Cuz there's more to me than you

Oooooooooo, oooooooo, oooooooo
There's more to me than you
(2x)

There's more to me than you
