

Fool

Jessica Lowndes

If only I could touch you
Feel you in my arms
If only I could hold you
Without sounding the alarm
It's only yesterday you left
But it seems like last year
Will I make it

Is it wrong of me to feel this way
You know my man would be betrayed
But I can't stop the way I feel when I see you
I'm such a fool

Is wrong of me to feel this way
You know my man would be betrayed
But I can't stop the way I feel when I see you
I'm such a fool for you
I'm such a fool for you

If only I could kiss you
Taste your skin my love
Instead I only miss you
Despite a heart within
It's only yesterday you left
But it seems like last year
Will I make it

Is it wrong of me to feel this way
You know my man would be betrayed
But I can't stop the way I feel when I see you

I'm such a fool
Is it wrong of me to feel this way
You know my man would be betrayed
But I can't stop the way I feel when I see you
I'm such a fool for you
I'm such a fool for you

And I worried I might steal you kiss
When I'm broken you could be my fix
But I can't cover all these lies
No matter just how hard I tried

And I can't go another day
Without you I might fade away
You're everything that I don't say
Take my pain away

Is it wrong of me to feel this way
You know my man would be betrayed
But I can't stop the way I feel when I see you
I'm such a fool

And I don't know if I can wait
And hold my fear like such a fake
In my dreams I love the way you feel when I'm with you
I'm such a fool for you

I'm such a fool for you
