

Do It Again

Jessica Mauboy

Sometimes I wish we'd never met
So I wouldn't have to let you go
Wouldn't have to deal with all this pain
Cause it hurts so much and it just won't go away
But I know that you just had to go, go, go
And I know it's not your fault
My heart just keeps calling, calling back, back, back
To the way that you love me and I, I, I know that you

Had to go and do it without me baby
But you're the one who said I should wait for you
But every day seems like I'm waiting for the seasons to change
And every day feels like I'm moving even further away
And don't pretend you're better without me baby
When nothing is as good as it used to be
Cause only you can come and take away the hurt and pain
Even though it had to end, I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again

I don't know if you feel the same cause I feel like I'm to blame
Always trying to hide what I feel
And I pray for the day to come when I didn't have to run away
From the memory of what we had
But I had to know that you just had to go, go, go
And I know it's not your fault
My heart just keeps calling, calling back, back, back
To the way that you love me and I, I, I know that you

Had to go and do it without me baby
But you're the one who said I should wait for you
But every day seems like I'm waiting for the seasons to change
And every day feels like I'm moving even further away
And don't pretend you're better without me baby
When nothing is as good as it used to be
Cause only you can come and take away the hurt and pain
Even though it had to end, I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again

I can't let you go another day
Before I tell you how I feel
And even the devil wants another chance
I wouldn't be afraid to do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again

Had to go and do it without me baby
But you're the one who said I should wait for you
But every day seems like I'm waiting for the seasons to change
And every day feels like I'm moving even further away
And don't pretend you're better without me baby
When nothing is as good as it used to be
Cause only you can come and take away the hurt and pain
Even though it had to end, I'll do it again, again, again

I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again
I'll do it again, again, again
