

Go (I Don't Need You)

Jessica Mauboy

At the beginning,
At the beginning when you said you'd hold my hand for as long as I was breathing,
Didn't know, didn't know, oh didn't know,
That'd you be feeling all these other kind of women,
Did you'd think that I'd be mad when I found out you were cheating?
Didn't know, didn't know, oh didn't know,

Oh won't you go, I don't need you anyway,
We were still in love just the other day,
Then you turn your back and you run away,
Oh won't you go, I don't need you anyway,

Yeah I know that I've been crying but it's time to start a riot,
If I see your face again it'd be only keeping quiet,
Better go you should go,
All the times that you were lying never stopped to think about it,
Didn't think that I would walk, didn't think that I would find out,
Now you know, you should go,

Oh won't you go, I don't need you anyway,
We were still in love just the other day,
Then you turn your back and you run away,
Oh won't you go, I don't need you anyway,

Oh, oh, oh won't you go I don't need you anyways,
Oh, oh, oh won't you go,

Oh won't you go, I don't need you anyway,
We were still in love just the other day,
Then you turn your back and you run away,
Oh won't you go, I don't need you anyway,
Go, go, won't you go, won't you go,
I think you'd better, I think you better hide,
Oh won't you go,
