

Always

Jessica Reedy

Your smile has disappeared, Your face is stained with tears
From pain that seems to never end
Your heart's completely broken, Can't breathe I see you choking
It's hard to breathe when life's not fair

How long will these things last
Their not moving, not moving too fast your hope is growing thin
You've prayed every prayer, feels like God's not there
But your heart keeps whispering within, Oh oh

It won't be, Like this Always, There'll be better days (2x)

Never had the perfect life, What a book that I could write
There'd be a tear on every page
Everyday there's something new, Pain is a permanent tattoo
Can't believe I made it to this age

If I flipped a coin I'd lose the toss
Searching for answers I got lost
Life is a complicated phase
You would think I've lost my faith, After all I've had to face
But with every book, you can always turn the page

It wont be, Like this Always, There'll be better days (2x)

I can see the future...
It looks better, so much BETTER! (3x)

I can see the future...
It looks better, so much BETTER! (2x)
