Jessica Reedy

Ummmmmm (My sunshine) (na na na na na da da da) (You gave me)

I don't know why You chose me, all I know is I'm so in love with You

I took a look back to see how far, You brought me
Picked up the pace to get where you have in store for me
No one'll measure all Your goodness to a window in the sky sending bl essings on my life

It starts with grateful rains and faithful rains

Deserving of You is a question that I ask myself
Do You love me? You show me that the answer is YES
