

Lead Me Home

Jessica Sanchez

Oh won't you lead me home to you
To all the strength and peace you gave
Tomorrow's harbor opens out her arms
Sends the watch tower on the wave

And you're the flame of every hope
That ever faced into the tide
Hold strong in the storm
Guiding constant friend

When I was lost upon
The lonesome seas
Oh lead me safe to land

Light the way to shore
Bravely breaking through, lead me home
Lead me home
Oh lead me home to you

And you're my freedom's blazing flame
Eternal hope to tame the night
And even all the winds of other world
Could never clench your light

Yesterday and now
Dream is to pursuit
Shelter me in your arms
Oh lead me home to you

Lead me home to you
(Lead me home to you)
Lead me home to you
Oh shelter me
In your arms
Oh lead me home to you

Long on the seas
Of hungry friendless life
Searching for a home
And the glow of world comes last

Boats are in the soul
Proud and lonesome friend

When I was lost upon
The lonesome seas
Oh lead me safe to land

Light the way to shore
Bravely breaking through, lead me home
Lead me home
Oh lead me home to you

Lead me home
Oh lead me home
Lead me home to you
