Stuttering

Jessica Sanchez

I ain't usually lost for words This has got to be a first And I'm tryna find the reason why I'm Stu- stu- stuttering

Something funny's happening I'm at a place I've never been And there's got to be a reason why I'm Stu- stu- stu- stuttering

Every time you look my way Something in me feels so strange And I'm starting to think you are why I'm Stu- stu- stuttering

I said hel, hel, hel, hello And my, my, my, my name is And it's so frustrating 'cause I don't wanna let you down My mind is racing, but it won't come out

Can't believe that I can't talk But it's not my fault 'Cause there's something that you do that's got me Stu- stu- stutering

There's so much that I wanna say But something's getting in my way And I gotta figure out how to stop Stu- stu- stuttering

I said hel, hel, hel, hello And my, my, my, my name is And it's so frustrating 'cause I don't wanna let you down My mind is racing, but it won't come out

Try to breathe but I'm suffocating Just be me but it's complicated I wanna tell you who I am, where I'm from Where I go when I wanna be alone

I want you to know me better Once I get my thoughts together It should be so easy to tell you how I'm feeling But I can't stop stuttering

Stuttering, stuttering Stu- doo doo doo doo doo Stuttering

I ain't usually lost for words This has got to be a first And I'm starting to think you are why I'm Stu- stu- stuttering
