

This Is Ya Life

J Sutta

This is your life

This is your life
And everything is gonna be just fine
But don't you worry `cause you'll end up fine
We're gonna rock this club tonight
Tonight
This is your life

This is your life
This is your life
This is your life
This is your life

Oh oh oh oh oh oh...

You make a wish in your simpleness
But it's easier just being yourself
You see the light of a superstar
But you know what they give up
Just to get to where they are

And I believe in you
`Cause you're beautiful
You're beautiful oh oh oh
And don't you ever give up
The feelings come and go
They come and go

This is your life
And everything is gonna be just fine
But don't you worry `cause you'll end up fine
We're gonna rock this club tonight
Tonight
This is your life

This is your life
This is your life

You're a masterpiece, a work of art
God made you perfect just the way you are
Every tear you cry and every wall you climb
Let your dreams inspire you
Pull you to the other side

And don't you ever forget
You're unstoppable
Unstoppable
Oh oh oh
Everything you want in life
You can have it all
You can have it all

This is your life
And everything is gonna be just fine
But don't you worry `cause you'll end up fine
We're gonna rock this club tonight

Tonight
This is your life

This is your life
This is your life
This is your life
This is your life

Oh oh oh oh oh oh...

Tell the world, tell the world how you really feel
Shout it out, shout it out and I know you will
No matter what, they can't break you down
Live your life the way you know how

This is your life
And everything is gonna be just fine
But don't you worry `cause you'll end up fine
We're gonna rock this club tonight
Tonight
This is your life

This is your life
And everything is gonna be just fine
But don't you worry `cause you'll end up fine
We're gonna rock this club tonight
Tonight
This is your life
