

When a Girl Loves a Boy

J Sutta

Acting I was afraid of fire
Thunder had me frighten, I've ran from the storm
And my fears turn into my desires
Now that I got you I don't run anymore

Cause when a girl loves a boy
Words don't seem so scary
And when a girl loves a boy, yeah
But ain't she will have it

So you should know
I'll die for you
I'll die for you
I'll die for you
Give all my life for you
I take a stand love for you
All that I have I feel it giving
For you only to enjoy
Cause when a girl loves a boy (Turn the lights on)
Cause when a girl loves a boy
(Mr. World Wide)
Cause when a girl loves a boy

I'll die for you
Ride for you
Laugh for you
Cry for you baby
You're my everything, queen, my woman, my wife, my lady
You're my dream I sleep
When I am dead
Till you all I see
And if they take you
Then God is sure as hell
Go ahead and take me
Love me, Love me, Love me, Love me, Love me
And tell me you need me you need me you need me you need me
And tell me you want me you want me want me want me
You're my heart
Till death do its part

Cause when a girl loves a boy
Words don't seem so scary
And when a girl loves a boy, yeah
But ain't she will have it

So you should know
I'll die for you
I'll die for you
I'll die for you
Give all my life for you
I take a stand love for you
All that I have I feel it giving

Just one last kiss
Be my dying wish
As living without you
There's no reason
Why would I exist
There would be no sense of me breathing
Can't leave life like this
The only one I am fighting for

Cause when a girl loves a boy
Words don't seem so scary
And when a girl loves a boy, yeah
But ain't she will have it

So you should know
I'll die for you
I'll die for you
I'll die for you (Die for me girl)
Give all my life for you
I take a stand love for you
All that I have I feel it giving
(Die for me girl)
(Die for me girl)
