

Wherever You Are

J Sutta

How do you get back
All that ever matters
How do you want to break out hearts
Into million pieces, shattered
I know I threw it all away
I made mistakes, I was so wrong
Now you're gone
How can I make you come back home

Wherever you are, I will go
However far, I'll follow
'Til you're in my arms
I can't make it on my own

Whatever it takes, I will do
To find that road leading back to you
I will go wherever you are

I will go wherever you are
I will go wherever you are

You were my day & night
My sunrise, my starry eyes
And then I lost my way
I was blinded, I couldn't find it
So now I'm stumbling in the dark
Without your spark, everything is faded
Complicated...
Is there a way that I can change it?

Wherever you are, I will go
However far, I'll follow
'Til you're in my arms
I can't make it on my own

Whatever it takes, I will do
To find that road leading back to you
I will go wherever you are

I will go wherever you are
I will go wherever you are

Take me around the world
Cuz I gotta be your girl
You know you hold my faith
Cupped inside your hands
When I'm at your door
I hope you open them just once more
And you say, we can try again

Wherever you are, I will go
However far, I'll follow
'Til you're in my arms
I can't make it on my own

Whatever it takes, I will do
To find that road leading back to you

I will go wherever you are

I will go wherever you are

I will go wherever you are
