

Another Dumb Love Song

Jessie James Decker

This might be another dumb love song
Cause I know you've been moving on
Did you ever cut your hair, or did you keep it long?
Do you still have that guitar that we used to play on?

Yeah, I hope you're doing fine
I think of you from time to time

Does it make you feel alive?
Does it make you wanna cry?
Does it mend and break your heart
Like it did when you broke mine?
Do you ever think of me?
Will you ever listen it?
On and on and on and on
Or is it just another dumb love song?

(Is it just another dumb love song?)

I've heard you found somebody new
I'd met if I don't was a little sad
You was never quite right, yeah it's something that we both knew
And I guess that's why I still sing about you

Does it make you feel alive?
Does it make you wanna cry?
Does it mend and break your heart
Like it did when you broke mine?
Do you ever think of me?
Will you ever listen it?
On and on and on and on
Or is it just another dumb love song?

(What are you doing? What are you doing?)
Is it just another dumb love song?
(What are you doing? What are you doing?)
(On and on and on)
(Is it just, is it just)
Is it just another dumb love song?
(Is it just, is it just another dumb love song?)

Yeah, I hope you're doing fine
I think of you from time to time

Does it make you feel alive?
Does it make you wanna cry?
Does it mend and break your heart
Like it did when you broke mine?
Do you ever think of me?
Will you ever listen it?
On and on and on and on
Or is it just another dumb love song?

(What are you doing? What are you doing?)
Is it just another dumb love song?
(What are you doing? What are you doing?)
(On and on and on)

(Is it just, is it just)
Is it just another dumb love song?
(Is it just, is it just another dumb love song?)

What are you doing? What are you doing?
What are you doing? What are you doing?
