

Where Do I Go

Jessy

Trough the eyes of every stranger
I see the pain the hurt the danger
The walls are coming down on everyone
The world is filled with so much anger
You'd think it's time that we'd surrender
Instead we just keep fighting on and on

Another child with no tomorrow
Left behind in tears and sorrow
Can anyone remember the reason why
Pollution is killing every river
You'd think it's time we'd reconsider
Instead we just ignore and move along

Where do I go from here
Do I walk alone in fear
Do I leave it all behind me like a dream
Where do I go from here
Do I walk alone in fear
Do I leave it all behind me like a dream...

Where do I go from here
Do I walk alone in fear
Do I leave it all behind me like a dream
Where do I go from here
Do I walk alone in fear
Do I leave it all behind me like a dream...
