

Broken Bones

Jesus Jones

You can crawl, you can walk
You can beg or you can talk
There'll always be broken bones
You can crawl, you can walk
You can beg or you can talk
There'll always be broken bones
Broken bones, broken bones
Broken bones, broken bones
You can crawl, you can walk
You can beg or you can talk
There'll always be broken bones
You can crawl, you can walk
You can beg or you can talk
There'll always be broken bones
You can crawl, you can walk
(Yeah, yeah)
You can beg or you can talk
(Ooh)
Broken bones, broken bones
Broken bones, broken bones
