

Welcome Back Victoria

Jesus Jones

since you've gone you know that no-one's really missed you
and now your friends watch over everything that we-ee do
so the pendulum swings back
you went away, OK
we got a little slack and once again you'll cover up what you don't understand don't close your eyes you can't hide behind your hands
we'll be no threat when we're deaf, dumb and blind
clean books, clean screens, clean words, dirty minds
i am a child of the sixties and for that i must pay you wag your finger all you like i'll tell you something, it's my children they'll have no choice but to say
i trust your piano legs are covered up again
double standards are you forte, now as then
we'll tip our top hats to those who walk the streets, and you know what i mean, now
on commercial street be careful who you meet, but you're alright, jack welcome back, welcome back, yeah welcome back, welcome back, eehee hee
