

Change The World

Jesus On Extasy

I'll start again with a brand new life,
with a brand new name and a brand new face,
I've seen it all, I've been to Hell...

I'll start again with a brand new life,
with a brand new name and a brand new face,
I've seen it all, I've been to Hell,
I'll walk away, and you stay here...

I saw a priest carry a Gun,
play russian roulette with 2 nuns,
gettin threesome drinkin wine,
oh blood of christ it tastes so fine...

I will never change the World for you.
I will never change myself for you.
I will never change the World for you.
I will never change myself for you.

I saw a child nailed to the cross,
he couldn't understand that fuzz.
The mother sat and cried in Vain,
the child cried loud and died in pain.

I will never change the World for you.
I will never change myself for you.
I will never change the World for you.
(Nothing will ever change the World)
I will never change myself for you.

I will never... (I will never)
I will never... (I will never)
I will never change myself for you.
Ohhhh... for you
