

In this life

Jet Black Stare

In this life, torn apart
I've been lookin' for the answers
I wish I was at home
If I could end this all today
If I could only find a way

Say you'll keep a candling burning
'Cause I'll be headin' home
I don't want to run away
I don't want to sacrifice
Say you'll be here with me
You could give me the strength to carry on
I don't want to run away
I've been running way too long
When you're here with me
Something hits me
I know that we belong
In this life

All this time, I've been gone
You were always waiting for me
I need to let you know
If I could take the pain away
If I could find the words to say

Say you'll keep a candling burning
'Cause I'll be headin' home
I don't want to run away
I don't want to sacrifice
Say you'll be here with me
You could give me the strength to carry on
I don't want to run away
I've been running way too long
When you're here with me
Something hits me
I know that we belong
In this life

I'm waiting on a moment
I'm waiting on a line
My arms are there to hold you
I'm coming home tonight
I've been away for far too long now,
The memories have kept me strong and...
You're the one
The one that got me through

I don't want to run away
I don't want to sacrifice
Say you'll be here with me
You could give me the strength to carry on
I don't want to run away
I've been running way too long
When you're here with me
Something hits me I know that we belong
In this life

I don't want to run away (we belong)
I don't want to sacrifice (we belong)
Say you'll be here with me
You could give me the strength to carry on
In this life
I don't want to run away (we belong)
I've been running way too long (we belong)
When you're here with me
Something hits me I know that we belong
In this life

In this life, torn apart
I've been lookin' for the answers
I wish I was at home
If I could end this all today
If I could only find a way

Say you'll keep a candling burning
'Cause I'll be headin' home
I don't want to run away
I don't want to sacrifice
Say you'll be here with me
You could give me the strength to carry on
I don't want to run away
I've been running way too long
When you're here with me
Something hits me
I know that we belong
In this life

All this time, I've been gone
You were always waiting for me
I need to let you know
If I could take the pain away
If I could find the words to say

Say you'll keep a candling burning
'Cause I'll be headin' home
I don't want to run away
I don't want to sacrifice
Say you'll be here with me
You could give me the strength to carry on
I don't want to run away
I've been running way too long
When you're here with me
Something hits me
I know that we belong
In this life

I'm waiting on a moment
I'm waiting on a line
My arms are there to hold you
I'm coming home tonight
I've been away for far too long now,
The memories have kept me strong and...
You're the one
The one that got me through

I don't want to run away
I don't want to sacrifice
Say you'll be here with me
You could give me the strength to carry on
I don't want to run away

I've been running way too long
When you're here with me
Something hits me I know that we belong
In this life

I don't want to run away (we belong)
I don't want to sacrifice (we belong)
Say you'll be here with me
You could give me the strength to carry on
In this life
I don't want to run away (we belong)
I've been running way too long (we belong)
When you're here with me
Something hits me I know that we belong
In this life