

Anyone But You

Jewel

I haven't been out lately
There's too much going on
My friends say I'll go crazy
If I don't get out and have some fun
So I put on my best dress
I confess, felt good I gotta say
I stepped into the dance hall
What I saw took my breath away

Anyone but you
Anyone but you
I was hoping I would run into
Anyone but you

Through the smoke and neon
I saw you look my way
Here come those same old feelings
I thought had gone away
But I know that I am strong
And as the night draws on
Should you ask to take me home
I'm sure that I'll say no to...

Anyone but you
Anyone but you
I was hoping I would run into
Anyone but you

I'd like to fall into your arms
With all your charms
But we both know how that would end
It would end with me crying
And you leaving again

Anyone but you
Anyone but you
I was hoping I would run into
Was hoping I would run into
Anyone but you
