

Where's the lovin'? Where's the feelin' that we had?
Where's the kissin'? Something's missin', turning sad
Where's the magic? Where's the caring that we knew?
Where's the sharing of the things we used to do?

Not too late to answer
Not too late to stop the trend
Take it slow and easy
Not too late to make amends
Go slow, think before you let go
We could let our love grow
If we only go slow

Why the heartache? Why the giving up so soon?
Why the break up? We're not reaching for the moon
Why not try it? Why not try to carry on?
Why not go slow when you know so much has gone?

Not too late to answer
Not too late to stop the trend
Take it slow and easy
Not too late to make amends
Go slow, yeah, think before you let go
We could let our love grow
If we only go slow

Not too late to answer
Not too late to stop the trend
Take it slow and easy
Not too late to make amends
Go slow, think before you let go
We could let our love grow
If we only go slow

Go slow, think before you let go
We could let our love grow
If we only go slow

Yeah, go slow, just think before you let go
We could let our love grow
If we only go slow

Go slow, just think before you let go
We could let our love grow
