

Tell Me Why

Jigsaw

Some people say you'll never win a beauty show
Oh no, maybe they're right, some things you do are all I know
Although it's hard for you to follow up your first hello
If it isn't the way you do what you're doing, then tell me why
I love you
If it isn't the way you say what you're saying, then tell me wh y I love you
'Cause there must be a reason why, there must be something

It's everything, that's why I love you, love you, love you
Every single thing, that's why I love you, love you, love you
'Cause I never look through the eyes of other guys
That's why I love you

The way you look could never make a film star sigh
No lie, the things you do would aggravate the average guy
But I hear what you say and then I stop and wonder why
If it isn't the way you do what you're doing, then tell me why
I love you
If it isn't the way you say what you're saying, then tell me wh
y I love you
'Cause there must be a reason why, there must be something

It's everything, that's why I love you, love you, love you
Every single thing, that's why I love you, love you, love you
'Cause I never look through the eyes of other guys
That's why I love you

Some people say you'll never win a beauty show
(If it isn't the way you do what you're doing, then tell me why
I love you)
Oh no, maybe they're right, some things you do are all I know
(If it isn't the way you say what you're saying, then tell me w hy I love you)
The way you look could never make a film star sigh
