

Said Enough

Jill Scott

There's so many things I want to say baby
So many words, oh (well well well)
Oh, you know what I mean?
(oh I know, I know)

Loving you is easy
Loving you is like breathing
Winter winter spring natural food
Ever loose ya
Loving you is righteous
Ever green light just
Shines bright (oh yeah)
When I'm with you
Ooh there's so much I want to say
Baby

[Chorus]
Said enough
I just want you to know
Said enough
So much I want to say
Said enough
I love
Said enough

Loving you, loving you is like
Sweeter than candy
Feels like I'm in heaven
Sweet like a morning kiss, oh
Loving you is so beautiful, baby
Loving you is food for my soul
Baby you know, you know, you know
Oh what I'm trying to say girl
I gotta let you know just what I feel

(Said enough)

Gotta let you know what I feel
Gotta let you know my heart, baby
Gotta let you know what's in my heart
I want you to know just what I'm thinking
Oh, you know what I'm thinking
I want you to know
Oh, I think I said
I got to let you know
Gotta let you know, you know babe
Your love, your love
My baby, my baby
So so in love
So good, you're so good baby
Baby what I'm thinking, there's nothing
Nothing in this world
In this world that could take what we have away
That would take what we have away
Oh no no
Nothing
Nothing

I said
You said
No no no no no, nothing baby
Said enough
You said and I said and we said
Oh you said
All I need to know girl
That's all I need to know baby
No no no no no no no no

You know what I'm talking about
I might just shut my mouth

[Chorus]
