

Wanna Be Loved

Jill Scott

Mmmm,
Don't, don't, don't, don't,
Don't, (don't, don't) don't, don't, don't,
(don't don't)
It's bad, It's bad
Sometimes st is bad... (don't)
Look,

Don't feel no pity for me
Cause I'm going through a couple things,
Life means change,
That's the way it goes, goes
All my life I had a constant burning
A strong deep, desire
An aching ambiguous, yearning, yearning, yearning

For something better
For something bigger
For something wider
For something higher
And lots of regrets
Cause I ain't seem to found it yet
I've been searching around the world
Never knowing what to expect
I get sad sometimes
Yes I be mad sometimes
Cause I'm out here on the grind
Making mine
And I still can't seem to find
What I've been looking for Opened so many doors
For real, yo
I just wanna be loved...

I just wanna be loved
Like everybody else does
I just wanna be loved
I just wanna be loved I just wanna be loved

[Chorus]
