

Daydream

Jillian Edwards

In the morning we'll watch sunrise
Say hello to blue skies opening the day
We've got lots of things to do
But I'll make time for you
I believe you're worth the while

So wait for me
To the edge of the sea
I would go
And run to the other side of the sun
And daydream

We'll smooth sail across the ocean
Move in slow motion
As you make me smile
In a red hot air balloon
We'll laugh all afternoon
Painting pictures in the sky

So wait for me
To the edge of the sea
I would go
And run to the other side of the sun

And daydreaming of the days to come
When we will leave behind
Every lost hope
We will lose the troubles in our minds

So wait for me
To the edge of the sea
I would go
And run to the other side of the sun
And daydream
