

It Must Be You

Jim Brickman

There's a rumor going around that suddenly I've been freed.
That I'm no longer on the ground cause on my My world turned upside down, and I know this much is true.
Everywhere I turn, I turn to you

It must be you that saved me Tell again that you'll be my baby, yea
It must be you that's turning my world around and I'm finally learning to love again, it's true and it must be you.

Thought I'd giving up on love like my heart would never heal like an angel from above you showed me how it feels to be alive again to learn to trust my heart and now that I've found you we'll never be apart
Oh Baby

I don't know where we are going but I do not care cause baby it is all I need having you here for eternity
Oh Baby
