

That's What I'm Here For

Jim Brickman

Dry your eyes
I'm here now
We'll get through this
Somehow
Sometimes this world, it cuts
Like a knife
Baby, baby that's life
Please believe I understand
Put yourself into my hand
When my last days are
Harder than strife
That's when I come to you

That's what I'm here for, baby
That's what our love can do
You won't shed a tear for
The rest of your life
I'll make it clear
That's what I'm here for

When my faith is wearin' thin
I feel your breath upon my skin
All of your heartaches, all of your fears
I'll make 'em disappear
With one smile
With one kiss
I feel how close have I missed
I know my days are harder than strife
That's when I come to you

Oh, what I'm here for
I only want to please you
And can't you see, I need you?
I only want to love you
And that's what I'm here for
I'm here for
I'm her fooooooooooor
