Gentle Woman Mine

Jim Ed Brown

Gentle woman mine gentle woman mine your love's the lasting  $\mbox{kin}$   $\mbox{d}$

Gentle woman mine gentle woman mine you belong to me you're min

You lay your head beside me and you gently take my hand I feel your body close to mine you understand your man Gentle woman mine...

We pull the night around us like a blanket warm and black The problems of the world are gone and we don't want 'em back You breathe soft on my shoulder and I hold you close so tight I wouldn't give the whole wide world for what we have tonight Gentle woman mine...

Gentle woman mine...
