

I'd Just Be Fool Enough (to Fall)

Jim Ed Brown

Oh please don't be so careless with your glances Don't look at me that way and breathe a sigh
And please don't get too close and let me love you Cause I'd just be fool enough to try It's not that I don't think I'm worthy of you but mem'ries from the past I still recall Don't let me hold you in my arms and kiss you cause I'd just be fool enough to fall

Don't let me tell you how I've dreamed about you And longed to have a love that I could share And please don't let your eyes be so revealing cause I'd just be fool enough to care
It's not that I don't think...
