

Party Girl

Jim Ed Brown

Dance your last dance party girl party girl have yourself a time party girl
Cause when this party's through I've got plans for you
So dance your last dance party girl

I realized there's fifty guys that you've got on the string
But I'm gonna change all that when I show you this diamond ring You'll forget that swinging band when you'll hear those cowboys sing
You're gonna trade your dancin' shoes for apron strings and thi ngs
So dance your last dance

Party girl you laugh and say that love is just a game
But like they say in storybooks tigers can't be tame Won't you be surprised when you take a second look
Instead of the bosa nova you'll be learnin' how to cook
So dance your last dance
So just dance your last dance party girl mhm