

You Wear A Smile

Jim Ed Brown

I heard somebody loves me wonder who
Well I hope they're right and I hope that someone's you
And if you'll only stay with me a while I promise when you leave you'll wear a smile

And I'll turn teardrops into love stops
That will be making while dawn is breaking without a tear in your eyes
I promise when you leave you'll wear a smile
I heard somebody loves me...

Though we both know someday we may go
I'll spend my time making yours a good time without a tear in our eyes
I promise when you leave you'll wear a smile
I heard somebody loves me...
I heard somebody loves me...
