

I've Enjoyed as Much of This as I Can Stand

Jim Reeves

You look lovelier tonight than I remember
I'm so glad I got to see you once again
I've enjoyed just sitting down and reminiscing
But I've enjoyed as much of this as I can stand.

There's so much more between us than this table
All those years, all those dreams, all those plans
Guess you know about me sayin' I still I love you
But I've enjoyed as much of this as I can stand.

So you say you're happy now you've found a new love
Tell him I said his a lucky, lucky man
No, I don't think I've had time to see his picture
I've enjoyed as much of this as I can stand.

There's so much more between us than this table
All those years, all those dreams, all those plans
Guess you know about me sayin' I still I love you
But I've enjoyed as much of this as I can stand...
