

It Hurts So Much to See You Go

Jim Reeves

Tonight we'll reach the hour we set for parting
We wanted to be free, we both said so
But the closer to that hour, the more I'm hurtin'
My heart will break, it hurts so much to see you go

What happened to the love we knew?
Where did we lose it?
How can a love as sweet as ours bring heartache so?

Why does it have to end this way?
What's there to do, what can I say?
When it hurts, it hurts so much to see you go

What happened to the love we knew?
Where did we lose it?
How can a love as sweet as ours bring heartache so?

Why does it have to end this way?
What's there to do, what can I say?
When it hurts, it hurts so much to see you go
