My Lips Are Sealed

Jim Reeves

I promise you he'll never know That once we loved each other so The past we knew I'll not reveal My lips are sealed.

My heart may cry with every beat Without your love I'm not complete It doesn't matter how I feel My lips are sealed.

Let there be laughter, Not one single tear And ever after Let your fears disappear.

If you love him as I love you Forget the past I led you through Just don't look back it's all concealed My lips are sealed.

Let there be laughter,
Not one single tear
And ever after
Let your fears disappear.

If you love him as I love you
Forget the past I led you through
Just don't look back it's all concealed
My lips are sealed...
