

Two Shadows on Your Window

Jim Reeves

Two shadows on your window
They make me realize
Darling, that you don't want me
Guess you've been telling me lies.

I know that I have lost you
You don't belong to me
Two shadows on your window
It's plain for this fool to see.

I have no love at all
No peace of mind
I came around to call,
What do I find?

Two shadows on your window
Cuddled in one embrace
Two shadows on your window
One of them is taking my place.

Yes, someone is taking my place...
