Ripple

Jimmie Dale Gilmore

If my words did glow with the gold of sunshine And my tunes were played on the harp, unstrung Would you hear my voice come through the music? Would you hold it near as it were your own?

It's a hand me down, the thoughts are broken Perhaps they're better left unsung I don't know, don't really care Let there be songs to fill the air

Ripple in still water When there is no pebble tossed nor wind to blow

Reach out your hand if your cup be empty If your cup is full, may it be again Let it be known, there is a fountain That was not made by the hands of men

And there's a road, no simple highway Between the dawn and the dark of night If you go, no one may follow That path is for your steps alone

Ripple in still water When there is no pebble tossed nor wind to blow

You who choose to lead must follow But if you fall, you fall all alone If you should stand, who's to guide you? If I knew the way, I would take you home
