

She Goes Walking Through My Mind

Jimmy Dean

(She goes walking through my mind) caring out a little at a time
Her footsteps keep it louder all the time when she goes walking through my mind

Tonight I will sleep though I'm not trying for sleep makes me dream then I start crying
Once again I'll get the glimpse of what was mine
When she goes walking through my mind
She goes walking through my mind...

I try to fight but I'm too weak I close my eyes then fall asleep
And once again there she is right on time
And she goes walking through my mind
She goes walking through my mind...
