

Tiny Drop Of Sadness

Jimmy Dean

There's a tiny drop of sadness in the corner of your eye
Even though I know you'd never let me see you cry
One thing's pretty certain I'm not doin' all that hurtin'
There's a tiny drop of sadness in your eye

We had a quarrel this evening now you tell me you're leaving
But do you really wanna go if you ask me I say no
Cause there's a tiny drop of sadness in your eye
There's a tiny drop...

Maybe I was always too demanding but were you really always understanding
If we both would give our best love would take care of the rest
And drive that tiny drop of sadness from your eye
There's a tiny drop...
There's a tiny drop of sadness in your eye
