When The Roll Is Called Up Yonder

Jimmy Dean

When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound and time shall be no $\ensuremath{\mathsf{m}}$ ore

And the morning breaks eternal bright and fair When the saved Thy word shall gather over on that other shore And the roll is called up yonder I'll be there

When the roll is called up yonder
When the roll is called up yonder
When the roll is called up yonder
When the roll is called up yonder I'll be there
```

Let us lay before the Master from the dawn till setting sun Let us speak of all his wondrous love and care And when this life is over and our work on earth is done And the roll is called up yonder I'll be there

When the roll is called up yonder
