

Who Put The Leaving In Your Eyes

Jimmy Dean

There you are a standing at the window again
I know there's something tuggin' at your soul
You look like you could run a hole right to the wind You're burning up with desire to go Your touch has a finger of the cold north wind oh I know it's a ll over goodbye
But I know that you don't have the strength to leave alone
So who put the leaving in your eyes
Who planted this satisfaction in your mind
Who gave you the strength to say goodbye
Who put that restless feeling in your soul who put the leaving in your eyes

For so long we've been headed down a one way street we've both lost all desire to try
But I know that you ain't got the strength to leave yourself
So who put the leaving in your eyes
Who planted this satisfaction in your mind

Who put the leaving in your eyes yeah honey who put the leaving
in your eyes
