

Mixtape

Jimmy Eat World

Maybe we could put your tape back on
Rewind until the moment we went wrong
I was always just a little bit lost
Knowing what I do, I should have fought

Simple words connecting thought
Just pieces of the background until they're gone
I was only there to sing your song
What were you protecting yourself from?

You don't get to walk away now
It's too late, you can't walk away now
