

The Most Beautiful Things

Jimmy Eat World

You say the most beautiful things, an endless list of treasures of trimmings.
It takes all my faith just to start
I don't care now how much I'm wrong my song it shames your ears every sentence a failure.
Slant rhyme is all I can give half truth is all I'll get.
Show us all what grace can mean,
all of what I might be.
Close your eyes call it escape.
We'll run away from everything
Lie to me,
love me
We'll run away from everything.
