

Laura

Jimmy Nail

I can hear the ocean pushing t the bay
If I close my eyes then maybe it'll go away
Everywhere ther'e sunlight and
Children play for time thought I heard a sign then
I realised it was mine

The sky's a perfect blue again
But if you look it's hard to tell
If it's paradise or hell

But now I know, laura
Summer is a lonely place
Oh, laura
I wish I could see your face

When a million birds sing how can I be sad
It's s if they know I lost the only chance I had

The sky's a perfect blue again
But it might as well be grey
'cause I let you walk away

But now I know, laura
Summer is a lonely place
Oh, laura
I wish I could see your face
Oh, laura
I kissed you in the rain
Oh, laura
How I wish I was home again

In winter I was warmer
Don't make me wait here alone
The sun has cast it's shadow
And it chills me to the bone

Oh, laura
How I wish I was coming home

The sky's a perfect blue again
But it might as well be grey
'cause I let you walk away

But now I know, laura
Summer is a lonely place
Oh, laura
I wish I could see your face
Oh, laura
I kissed you in the rain
Oh, laura
How I wish I was home again
