

Love Will Find Someone For You

Jimmy Nail

There's no gentle way to break somebody's heart
To say - it's over - it's time for us to part

Angel dry your eyes soon you're gonna see
I was wrong for you this wasn't meant to be
Love may do the cruellest things
May bruise those angel wings
But angel love will find someone for you

So angel don't you cry in a little while
Every tear will dry and you'll look back and smile
Love may do the cruellest things
Abuse those angel wings
But angel love will find someone for you

Angel don't you cry

Love may do the cruellest things
Abuse those angel wings
But angel love will find someone for you
Oh yes angel love will find someone for you
