

Real Love

Jimmy Nail

And when the shouting's over
Where do you go?
And when you're a wounded soldier
Who wants to know?

And when there's just no getting
Through to you
Pull back the clouds and take
A glimpse of the sky
When love comes down it's just like
Learning to fly

There's no harm that's gonna come to you
You're not in danger any more

Real love can climb any mountain
Real love as big as the sky

It's a mysterious thing
How it begins
You search for a life-time
But it won't let you in

And then it's there

There's a joy that runs
Through everything you do
Through somebody's love you
Become alive

Real love can climb any mountain
Real love as wide as a mile
Real love as deep as the ocean
Real love as big as the sky
