Real Love

Jimmy Nail

And when the shouting's over Where do you go? Nd when you're a wounder soldier Who wants to know?

And when ther's just no getting Through to you Pull back the clouds and take A glimpse of the sky When love comes down it's just like Learning to fly

There's no harm that's gonna come to you You're not in danger any more

Real love can climb any mountain Real love as big as the sky

It's a mysterious thing How it begins You search for a life-time But it won't let you in

And then it's there

There's a joy that runs Through everything you do Through somebody's love you Become alive

Real love can climb any mountain Real love as wide as a mile Real love as deep as the ocean Real love as big as the sky
