

Stone

Jimmy Somerville

Feeling so high as I lose my mind
Fearlessly clear in the mess I find
Hear myself talking
What's it all about
Sense my reflection
And it's all too loud

Heavy like stone, heavy like stone
I'm feeling easy
Heavy like stone
Heavy like stone, heavy like stone
I'm going nowhere
'Cause I'm heavy like stone

Light is exploding
A diva sings
Breaking to start up a million things looking in spaces where I never go
Surfaces melting
Fading down to slow

Heavy like stone, heavy like stone
I'm feeling easy
Heavy like stone
Heavy like stone, heavy like stone
I'm going nowhere
'Cause I'm heavy like stone

Maybe I'm laughing
Maybe I'm crying
There's no use in trying to find my way home

Heavy like stone, heavy like stone
I'm feeling easy
Heavy like stone
Heavy like stone, heavy like stone
I'm going nowhere
'Cause I'm heavy like stone
