

A Boy Like Me, A Girl Like You

Jiří Korn

When a boy like me
meets a girl like you.
Then I must believe wishes come true

I just look at you and I touch your hand.
And this ordinary world becomes a wonderland.

There are many girls
There are many boys
I have met before,
I have met before
but I passed them by
because I knew

There would be this magic moment,
one to last a lifetime through.
When a boy like me meets a girl like you.

There are many girls
There are many boys
I have met before,
I have met before
but I passed them by
because I knew

There would be this magic moment,
one to last a lifetime through.
When a boy like me meets a girl like you.
When a girl like me meets a boy like you.
Like you.
